

Art/Design Technology

Architecture: Study features and draw Grecian repeating patterns.

Clay: Use a range of tools and sculpting techniques to create a replica frieze.

Needlework: Study Ancient Greek needlework. Design & sew cross-stitch.

Literacy

Spoken word; word reading; comprehension; reciting; reviewing books.

Writing: handwriting; transcription; composition; grammar; vocabulary and punctuation.

Spellings: rules, prefixes, suffixes, homophones, root words, word origins.

Genres: Greek myths; fiction; poetry; stories with historical settings; brochures and persuasive texts.

History/Geography

Map work using atlases & globes.

Timeline from present to the Classical Age.

Government & the City States of Ancient Greece

Athens, Sparta & Alexander the Great
Democracy

PE

Gym

Athletics

Rounders

Tennis

Maths

Number and place value, counting in multiples, rounding and estimating, addition and subtraction, multiplication, number problems, fractions, decimals and percentages, measurement, time, geometry—properties of 2D and 3D shape, geometry - symmetry, angles, position, direction, area and perimeter,

Practise at home: number bonds to 10, 20, 100, 1000; telling the time; reading speedometers, measuring scales and TV schedules. MyMaths.

RE

Continuing to develop our understanding of different religions and beliefs. Linking our study to the themes of knowledge, tolerance and respect.

Summer theme: Creation

Computing

Publisher and leaflet design

Computer programming and coding

Developing awareness of url credibility

Movie Maker

(My Maths at home)

Meet the Greeks (Ancient Greece)

SMSC:

Growth Mindset approach to learning

Developing mindfulness practice

P4C (Psychology for Children)

PSHE: Getting on and falling out

PSHE: What makes a good friend?

Music

'Lean on Me' gospel

Instrumental accompaniments

Exploring singing games & sound signals

Music history timeline

Science

Teeth and Digestion.

Science week

Revision of earlier Year 4 topics.

Open-ended practical investigations.

Other activities

Greek Day

Visiting theatre and workshop

Olympic Games

Year 4's Got Talent

Reference and Textbooks; Fiction from our Literary Heritage