Dear Parents,

This is the last newsletter before the Easter holidays so we wish you a happy and relaxing break.

The Spring term has been extremely busy but also hugely enjoyable: we look forward to the Summer term.

WIMBLEDON BOOKFEST YOUNG WRITERS' COMPETITION

It is that time of year again for the Wimbledon Bookfest Young Writers' Competition. Each year children from the school send in entries and it gives us an ideal opportunity to celebrate writing for pleasure and to recognise the talents of some of our young writers.

Please see the flyer and encourage any keen writers from Years 1 to 6 to write a story or a poem over the Easter holidays. The theme this year is The Island! Entries need to be brought into school by Friday 26th April [first Friday back].

MATHS CURRICULUM EVENING: TEACHING FOR MASTERY

A huge thank you to all you who joined us for the Maths Evening: Fluency in the Four Calculations on Wednesday; it was a great turn out with approximately 100 attendees. Our young Maths Ambassadors from Years 5 and 6 led attendees through a range of fluency questions with great confidence.

If you were unable to attend the event, there are detailed parent handbooks about maths mastery and how you can help at home at the bottom of the maths page of the school website. Mr Saller's presentation will be put on the website after Easter.

EXCITING WEEK - SCIENCE WORKSHOPS

There was great fun with the Science Workshops at WCPS this week. The children explored the powers of air versus gravity using hairdryers, ping pong balls and balloons during the assembly. Years 4 and 5 then continued to explore chemical reactions and pressure during their workshops; carrying out several different experiments in order to launch a rocket!

SUCCESS STORIES

HOCKEY

Sisters Cara [Year 6] & Maeve [Year 3] were recognised for their achievements at their hockey club. Maeve and her team mates got a medal for determination and hard work and great friendly playing during the past season. Cara was awarded 'best newcomer' in the U12 girls section and was presented by a plaque and signed photographs by some of the England men's senior hockey squad which was also a great experience! Well done girls!

Congratulations to the Year 2/Nursery parent who won £175.00 in the school lottery.
