

helenrutteruk Hello you lovely lot at Wimbledon Chase Primary! I hope that you all have a great year and find some books that you love! Wishing you lots of love and laughter from Helen Rutter-Author of The Boy Who Made Everyone Laugh. Xx

5 m    Reply

katherine.rundell [redacted] hello!

Of course - 'dear Year 6; I hope it's a wonderful year ahead. I really do believe that books crowbar the world open for you; I hope you find books this year to make you laugh and gasp; I hope you find books that feel like going on an adventure, and books that make you feel tougher and braver and like the world is a even vaster than you imagined.

33 m

Reply

Good luck Year 6, and happy reading! That means reading whatever you want; that means giving yourself the chance to read things you'd never have dreamed of trying; and that means stopping a book when you don't want to finish it. But most of all, it means have fun! Yours, Ross Montgomery thomskagram [redacted] Hi, Mr Surkitt. Thanks for getting in touch! I'm delighted to hear that my books – and especially Malamander – are popular with your pupils, and I wish you and everyone at Wimbledon Chase Primary School a great start to the new academic year, and beyond! Very best wishes from Eerie-on-Sea.

Thomas Taylor

60 s

Reply