- Raising money or buying gift-cards

FOR GIVING.

FOR GETTING.

@MATTHEWZAREMBA

Remember we all have a giving and a receiving hand.

At Foodbank we use
both every day.

The love and care gives meaning and creates a lasting effect.

Playground Games

Led by RRS Playground Leaders

Teach games to one another to make the playground more interesting

More children working as teams

More togetherness

Game One

Laughing tag

1 child - tagger

All other children find a space

Move around without being tagged

If child is tagged the tagger and the child stop and face each other

The tagger tries to make the tagged child smile/laugh. If the tagger is successful the pupil becomes a tagger- if not the game carries on

Game two

Octopus

Select one child to be the octopus

Rest of players line up and face the octopus.

The octopus calls the players to cross the sea by naming different things.

If you are wearing White socks- swim

If you have a letter a in your name

If you like chocolate

Players try to run to other side without being tagged

You can't move if you get tagged and you become seaweed

Seaweed can tag players that pass

If the octopus calls out octopus! All the players have to run to the other side

The games ends when only one player remains

Game Three

Coin flip

Heads and tails

Child in middle

Jump to child if middle person gets head

Continue

Then if child gets there- outside swaps to the middle

Busy bees at WCPS over next few weeks

own Food Bank
